

LPP Website Privacy Notice

1. Introduction

“Being transparent and providing accessible information to individuals about how you will use their personal data is a key element of the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). The most common way to provide this information is in a privacy notice.” ICO 2018

2. Privacy Policy (website)

This privacy policy sets out how Local Pensions Partnership (LPP) and its subsidiaries uses and protects any information that you give when you use this website.

LPP is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

LPP may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes.

3. What we collect

We use Google Analytics which may collect information about your computer (including your IP address, operating system and browser type), for system administration and to provide the user with a smoother experience on our websites. Please refer to LPPA's Privacy Policy for details of how personal data is processed.

4. What we do with the information we gather

LPP does not collect personal information other than the information stated in Section 3 on any of our websites.

5. Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online. LPP is accredited ISO 27001 Information Management, which means that we need to uphold certain standards around the security of data.

6. Data Protection Regulations

We are regulated by the Data Protection Act 2018 (DPA18) and the UK General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). To ensure compliance with our obligations under these regulations we keep personal data up to date, store and destroy personal data securely, do not collect or retain excessive amounts of data and protect personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure.

7. How we use cookies

Our website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of our website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you browse our website and also allows us to improve our website.

8. Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our website, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such websites and such websites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

9. Direct marketing

LPP does not collect personal information to sell, distribute or lease to third parties.

10. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep your personal data for no longer than reasonably necessary in case of any legal claims or complaints.

For further information on LPP's retention periods of personal data please email Local Pensions Partnership Investments (LPPI, for pension investments) or Local Pensions Partnership Administration (LPPA, for pension administration).
